

Mr. V. Vimalathithan

Guest Speaker for the 23rd Annual Saiva Conference 2024

Mr. V. Vimalathithan holds the position of visiting lecturer at the esteemed University of Peradeniya, one of Sri Lanka's premier institutions of higher education. In addition, he fulfills the role of visiting lecturer at the Sri Lanka International Buddhist Academy (SIBA Campus), where he imparts knowledge on Hinduism and Hindu culture to Buddhist clergy. Moreover, Mr. Vimalathithan is recognized as an independent researcher specializing in Tamil and Siddharyal Studies, alongside being a renowned Tamil Orator.

Vimalathithan is actively engaged in overseeing the operations of the institution 'Mozhi' (மொழி), dedicated to realizing the vision of Mahakavi Subramania Bharatiyar by promoting multidisciplinary knowledge in Tamil. 'Mozhi' serves as a platform for the exploration and dissemination of various fields of knowledge and arts in the Tamil language.

Presently, he is pursuing his Master of Philosophy degree in Tamil and conducting research on 'Thiruppuhazh by Saint Arunagirinathar' under the guidance of Professor V. Maheswaran and Professor S. Pirashanthan at the University of Peradeniya. Moreover, Vimalathithan has delivered a series of spiritual discourses titled "Thiruvadikkeel Solliya Paattu" on platforms like YouTube and Facebook, enlightening the younger generation about the beauty and profundity of Saiva Tamil literary works.

In addition to his various endeavors, he is also a dedicated student of the traditional path of Yoga, studying under the guidance of the Siddha and Shaktism Guru-Parampara.

Vimalathithan was fortunate to become a disciple of Acharya 'Agasthiya Kulapathi Sri Sakti Sumanan', who underwent education in the Gurukula of Gayathri Siddhar Murugesu Swami at Sri Gayatri Peetam in Nuwara Eliya, Sri Lanka. Subsequently, he acquired mastery over all the facets of Sri Vidhya under Sri Amirtananda Nathar of Devipuram in Visakhapatnam, India, completing rigorous Tapas. Presently, Acharya 'Agasthiya Kulapathi Sri Sakti Sumanan' has founded the 'SRISHTI' organization, disseminating Siddha wisdom and spiritual enlightenment on a global scale. Guided directly by his guru, Vimalathithan diligently practices Yoga and actively participates in his guru's spiritual publication endeavors, including works like 'Agathiyar Yoga Gnanath Thiravukol'.

He deeply believes that Tamil is a yogic language and continues to work hard to carry the devotional literature of Tamil to the next generation through suitable means.
